

“May you have walls for the winds, a roof for the rain and tea beside the fire.

Laughter to cheer you, those you love near you, and all your heart might desire.

May joy and peace surround you, Contentment latch your door, And happiness be with you now, And bless you evermore.”

“Gratitude is not only the greatest of virtues, but the parent of all others.” Cicero

DONATIONS

Women of Note had the pleasure of singing back-up for I Wanna Know What Love Is with the band, Foreigner, which generously provided $500 to support our performances and music education in this community. We had a website created and set up Facebook and Instragram. Few people realize we have many expenses beyond music, insurance and instrumental honorariums. Some of these include licensing fees, website hosting fees, post office rental, and money to pay our valued accompanist. The work to keep the choir running is volunteer on the part of the artistic director, conductor, who also creates the posters and programs in order to keep costs low as possible so concerts can be donations only, allowing anyone to enjoy music. We need your help. Please donate at the basket in the back of the room, or go to
